The Beauty Of Death (Part Two - The Ascending) by Kahlil Gibran

I have passed a mountain peak and my soul is soaring in the firmament of complete and unbound freedom.

I am far, far away, my companions and the clouds
are hiding the hills from my eyes.

The valleys are becoming flooded with an ocean of silence,
and the hands of oblivion are engulfing the roads and the houses.

The prairies and fields are disappearing behind a white spectre that looks like the spring cloud,
yellow as the candlelight and red as the twilight.

The songs of the waves and the hymns of the streams are scattered,
and the voices of the throngs reduced to silence.

And I can hear naught but the music of eternity
in exact harmony with the spirit's desires.

I am cloaked in full whiteness. I am in comfort. I am in peace.
